Policy and Rules

- Class attendance is obligatory.
- Exceeding the maximum absence will bear the consequence of not being able to take the final exam.
- 2 compulsory assignments (including Asynchronous Assignment) prior to Mid-term exam
- 2 compulsory assignments prior to Final Exam

Affective Domain Guidelines

Affective domain covers the student code of conduct/ behavior/attitude that will be assessed accordingly as follows:

1. Punctuality = 15: Students come to class on time. We consider the students are present if they show up at least 20 minutes after the class session commences
2. Student-Lecturer Interaction = 20: Students Turn the video on during the class session

(PS: The students can turn off the camera for only 20 minutes otherwise it will affect their absence)

Affective Domain Guidelines

3. Class attendance = 15: Students always show up in the class/zoom class)
4. Class Participation = 20: Students engage actively in the class discussion
5. Plagiarism = 30: It is unethical to plagiarize because someone else has worked hard and should receive credit so students must not plagiarize. If students fail to comply, they will bear the consequences of getting 0

PLEASE READ THE AFFECTIVE DOMAIN GUIDELINES IN BAHASA ON YOUR E-LEARNING

4 Reasons We Need to Develop a Reading Habit

Reading is a good habit that you need to cultivate in our life because:

1. Reading expands our knowledge
2. Reading builds vocabulary
3. Reading improves our analytical thinking skills
4. Reading increases our level of creativity and imagination

READING TECHNIQUES SKIMMING & SCANNING

Skimming is ...

- to read quickly in order to get a general idea of a passage.
- skimming requires you to note only information and clues that provide an idea of the central theme or topic.

SCANNING

Scanning is...

- very fast reading.
- skipping over many words.
- looking for specific information as quickly as you can.
- important for improving your reading skill because you do not read every word; you read faster instead, to understand faster as well.

LET'S PRACTICE SKIMMING AND SCANNING TECHNIQUES

WRITING CLINIC - FREE WRITING

- After reading (implementing skimming and scanning techniques) “Gen Z’s use of social media has evolved”, now it’s time to do FREE WRITING. What is FREE WRITING?
- FREE WRITING is a writing strategy developed by Peter Elbow in 1973, is similar to brainstorming but is written in sentence and paragraph form without stopping.
- FREE WRITING increases the flow of ideas and reduces the chance that you’ll accidentally censor a good idea.
- FREE WRITING helps to increase fluency second-language learners—i.e., the ability to produce written language easily (as opposed to accuracy, which is of course important but which is better addressed later in the process).
- Just enjoy writing whatever you have in mind!

Free Writing – Guided Questions

- a. What are the advantages and disadvantages of young people especially Generation Z using social media?
- b. Do you think the advantages outweigh the disadvantages?

IT'S WRITING CLINIC TIME!

- ENJOY WRITING!
- Please write your perspectives toward “Gen Z’s use of social media has evolved”
- Students may share and discuss their Free Writing with the Lecturer

Next meeting – Pre Class Activity

- Read Unit 1 pp. 7-12.
- Read text 1 entitled: “Are online friends a threat to development?”

THANK YOU
